Rahatgarh Fort is about 40 Km west from Sagar on Bhopal-Sagar Road.

- This place is famous for its architecture, gates and its ruins.
- It is situated at the bank of the Bina River which is crossed at this point by a fine bridge of fourteen arches.
Eran is an ancient town and archaeological site in Sagar district of Madhya Pradesh, India.

- It was one of the ancient mints for Indian dynasties as evidenced by the diverse coins excavated here.
- The site has 5th and 6th-century Gupta era temples and monuments, colossal stone boar with sages and scholars depicted on the body of the sculpture.
- The inscription stones found at Eran are important to reconstructing the chronology and Gupta Empire history.
- Eran or Erakina was the capital of Erakina (Airikina) Pradesha or Arikina Vishaya, an administrative division of the Gupta empire.
Khimlasa, a mahal in the Sarkar of Raisen of the subah of Malwa.

- Khimlasa is enclosed by a fortified wall built of stone rubble more or less coursed.

- In the center there is a bastion fort of which the gateways alone form an interesting feature.

- One side of the fort is the dargah of the 5 Pirs, with an elaborately carved perforated screen work, which deserves an special mention.
